

WHAT MAKES A GREAT PLACE TO WORK?

Do you work in a great place? Everyone is different and so are our teams. There's no 'one size fits all' approach to making work a place that people want to be so read on to find out more...

Our research has identified that the behaviours on the right have the biggest impact on how people who work in NHS finance feel about their job.

How many of these behaviours do you and your team display?
