

FUTURE-FOCUSED FINANCE – FINANCE 4 CLINICIANS

AGENDA

Date: 29th September 2020

Platform: Microsoft Teams

10.00 Welcome and Introduction

NHS Future-Focused Finance is committed to demystifying NHS Finance to improve clinical value. AK, FFF's Clinical lead will set the scene for the workshop explaining how the FFF programme aims to educate clinicians in how to navigate the new financial environment and the importance of financial training to all NHS professionals.

Dr Akeeban Maheswaran, Consultant Anaesthetist at University Hospitals of Leicester NHS Trust and Lead for Clinical Engagement, NHS Future-Focused Finance

10.05 Introduction to NHS Finance

This session will give overview of the ever-changing NHS Structure and how the money flows and look at NHS payment systems and how this might all change in the post-COVID era.

Dr Akeeban Maheswaran, Consultant Anaesthetist at University Hospitals of Leicester NHS Trust and SRO, Close Partnering Workstream, Future-Focused Finance

10.30 Discussion - what should the health and care system look like post COVID?

10.45 Coffee Break

10.55 Introduction to Clinical Coding

This session will give attendees an insight into the role of Clinical Coding in being paid for our services, the importance of accurate coding and the main challenges.

Gareth Jones, Clinical Coding Improvement Manager, Manchester University NHS FT

11.15 Introduction to NHS Costing and PLICS

This session will give attendees an Introduction to costing in the NHS looking at:

- What is costing?
- Why is it important?
- Understanding the patient journey and cost

- Patient Level Costing
- How costing information can be used to improve patient care

Patrick McGinley, Head of Costing and SLR, Maidstone and Tunbridge Wells NHS Trust

11.35

Q&A

12.00

Close