

BEST POSSIBLE VALUE 2017 TRAINING EVENTS

MAKING PEOPLE COUNT

The Best Possible Value (BPV) action area of Future-Focused Finance is holding a series of learning events for colleagues working in healthcare to learn more about making value-based decisions. The aim of our action area is for finance and clinical colleagues to be the joint leaders of putting best value for service users at the heart of the way we do business.

The BPV Decision Framework supports NHS organisations in designing a clear, structured decision-making process that demonstrates good governance and models options based on the value offered to service users and taxpayers. The 'value equation' is used throughout to measure the impact of strategic and operational decisions within organisations and local health economies on clinical outcomes, patient experience and safety.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

These interactive all-day workshops will introduce you to materials that can help approach value and better decision-making in a practical, hands-on way. We'd encourage those attending to consider working towards ultimately registering themselves as a BPV Specialist (find out more about the role here). By the end of the day you'll have gained the following competencies:

- 'I understand the how BPV decision framework and its tools work'
- 'I understand what a successful decision looks like for my organisation'
- 'I understand and am confident in the role of a BPV Specialist'

The events are aimed at all levels of clinical and support service professionals working in healthcare. Attendance by anyone involved in decision-making (e.g. dis/investment, service development etc.) who can then go back to their organisation and share the practical learning with others is encouraged. As a major part of Future-Focused Finance is working with other professions and professionals to deliver value, clinicians and operational leads would also benefit from attending – come as a team!
